Examiner's Comment

1. The information disclosure statement filed January 3rd, 2008 fails to comply with 37 CFR 1.97(d) because it lacks a statement as specified in 37 CFR 1.97(e). Furthermore, after a review of the IDS documents it appears that this IDS cannot be considered, as the mailing date of the Japanese action was November 8, 2005, which is more than three months from the time the IDS filed. Thus, applicant cannot make the 37 CFR 1.97(e) statement. It has been placed in the application file, but the information referred to therein has not been considered. However, as per MPEP § 609.05(b)(1)(A), applicant can file an RCE to have these documents considered.

Examiner's Statement of Reasons for Allowance

2. Claims 3, 4, 6, 8, 11, 12, 16, and 17 (renumbered claims 1-8) are allowed.
3. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claims 3, 11 and 16, the primary reason for allowance is that the prior art fails to teach or reasonably suggest an image designating unit or step for designating either of the first image data and the second image data, wherein the image-angle correcting unit or step corrects the tilt of the image data designated by the designating unit or step so that the direction of the designated image data coincides with that of the other image data.

As for claims 4, 12, and 17, the primary reason for allowance is that the prior art fails to teach or reasonably suggest that the image angle correcting unit or step corrects the tilt of either the first or second image data by an arbitrary angle.

With regard to claim 6, the primary reason for allowance is that the prior art fails to teach or reasonably suggest that the first and second direction designating unit comprises a touch panel and designates the direction using coordinates with respect to positions on the touch panel where a user touches.

Regarding claim 8, the primary reason for allowance is that the prior art fails to teach or reasonably suggest that wherein the first and second direction-designating unit comprise key buttons and designates a direction based on a direction of the depressed key button.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to John M. Villecco whose telephone number is (571) 272-7319. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday.
